

LUMYNA INVESTMENTS LIMITED ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS DISCLAIMER

All electronic communications (e.g., email, instant message, SMS, web conferencing, screen sharing, file exchanges), whether in the form of audio, video or text, and any attachments thereto (each, an "e-communication"), are intended solely for the use of the intended recipient(s) and may contain information that is privileged, confidential, proprietary or otherwise protected by work product immunity or other legal rules. No confidentiality or privilege is waived or lost by any errors in transmitting or receiving an e-communication. If you receive an e-communication but are not an intended recipient, please notify Lumyna, and then please delete and destroy all copies of the e-communication, and be advised that any review or dissemination of, or the taking of any action in reliance on, the information contained in the e-communication is prohibited. E-communications are not intended for distribution to, or use by, any person or entity in any location where such distribution or use would be contrary to law or regulation, or which would subject Lumyna to any registration requirement within such location.

The transmission and content of an e-communication cannot be guaranteed to be secure or free of errors or viruses. Therefore, Lumyna does not represent that any e-communication (or the information contained therein) is complete, accurate, uncorrupted, timely or free of viruses, and it should not be relied upon as such. Lumyna does not waive any intellectual property rights in any e-communication. For your protection, Lumyna recommends that you do not send any individual personal information via communication methods that are not secure, including via public e-communication channels, which are generally not secure and could be intercepted by a third party. If you are not comfortable with the risks associated with email and decide not to use unencrypted email to communicate with Lumyna, please notify Lumyna. Lumyna provides encrypted email services for certain products and services. Lumyna reserves the right to intercept, monitor, record, review and retain all e-communications, including audio, video and text, sent or transmitted to or from its systems as permitted by applicable law. Any e-communication that is conducted within or through Lumyna's systems will be subject to being archived, monitored and produced to regulators and in litigation in accordance with Lumyna policy and local laws, rules and regulations.

Unless expressly prohibited by local law, e-communications may be archived in countries other than the country in which you are located, and may be treated in accordance with the laws and regulations of the country of each individual included in the entire message chain. Unless otherwise specifically indicated, Lumyna does not accept time-sensitive, action-oriented messages or transaction orders, including orders to purchase or sell securities, via email, and this message is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of any offer to buy any securities, futures, options, loans, investment products or other financial product or service, an official confirmation of any transaction, or an official statement of Lumyna.

All market prices and market data contained in or attached to an e-communication are indicative and subject to change without notice, and any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and may not reflect the views of Lumyna. The information in an e-communication is not intended to replace a recipient's own internal business processes for evaluating proposed transactions. Recipients should seek financial advice regarding the appropriateness of investing in any securities referred to in an e-communication and should understand that statements regarding future prospects of the instruments or the securities included in them may not be realised.

There can be no assurance that securities mentioned in an e-communication could be sold or bought at such prices. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Foreign currency rates of exchange may adversely affect the value, price or income of any security or related investment. Lumyna does not provide tax, accounting or regulatory advice. Please consult your advisor as to any tax, accounting or legal statements made in any e-communication.
